

HILDA WADE

Grant Allen

HILDA WADE

A Woman with Tenacity of Purpose by Grant Allen (1848-1899)

In this early detective novel, the detective is Hilda Wade. She is a very capable nurse, but there is something mysterious about her from the moment she arrives at the hospital. Upon meeting her, Dr. Hubert Cumberledge greatly admires her and becomes a devoted friend. It turns out that Hilda has one purpose in life, and in pursuit of that purpose she will travel across the world, from London to South Africa, Rhodesia, India, Nepal, Tibet and back. With Cumberledge's support, her extraordinary logic and clear thinking lead her on through deadly perils. But will that be enough to accomplish the secret purpose which has driven her so long and so far? (Summary by Mary Ann Spiegel).

Read by Anna Simon and Lars Rolander
Total running time: 10:13:52

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.
Cover picture by Gordon Browne (1900).

HILDA WADE – Grant Allen

HILDA WADE – Grant Allen

HILDA WADE – Grant Allen